A journey to beautiful hotels

Courchevel is a beautiful village that is famous not only for its great slopes but also for its lifestyle. For me is a must winter destination and at Fahrenheit Seven I couldn't feel more like home. Can't wait to get back to this winter wonderland and wake up again to the stunning Fahrenheit Seven mountain views.

The stylish rooms have breathtaking views of the Alps and the village. Beautiful textures and colours contribute to a cosy feel but with a retro look and a relax atmosphere that you need after a day skiing.

The beautiful decorated Le zinc bar restaurant is the place to be in Courchevel. It's cosy and at the same time fresh and vibrant. You can have a delicious dinner and then enjoy the live music or guest DJs with a glass of wine at the bar till late at night.

La Rotisserie is located right on the foot of the slopes of Courchevel 1650. It is open all day for drinks and lunch. It has also a terrace where you can enjoy the sunny days or have a quick coffee before you hit the slopes. At the ski room the staff not only rent out the latest equipment, but will also help you carry your skis or board outside.
